Hi Margaret

██████ is my in 11LF4 class.

That explains her limited participation and commitment towards her studies. I have witnessed a change in her in the last two weeks, as she seems to be disengaged from her work.

We were doing an assessment and she did not want to even attempt the assessment saying that it is difficult.

If she wants I can work with her during lunch or after school on Monday afternoons.

Thanks for the information.

Regards

Mohammed Tashmeer

Hi to all teachers of ██████

██████ would like you to know that she is finding school very difficult at present for many reasons, some of which are outside of her control. She is feeling stressed and worried and this is affecting her mood. She is also struggling to concentrate which is affecting her ability to do well in your class. She would also like you to know that whilst she doesn't want to be treated differently, she does need you to be aware that she has a pass to come to Guidance, if she needs to, to gather her thoughts in a quiet place.

Your understanding in this matter, is greatly appreciated by ██████ and me.

Don't hesitate to flick me an e-mail if you have any concerns.

Kind Regards

Margaret O'Carroll
